JOINT WORKSHOP FOR GLOBAL ENGINEERS IN ASIA AND BEYOND (JWGEA)

GLOBAL ONLINE COLLABORATIVE LEARNING

IMPACT OF COVID-19: Can we still celebrate 100-year of Life?

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Joint Workshop for Global Engineers in Asia and Beyond (JWGEA) 2020 is a pilot project online in the form of the Global Online Collaboration Learning initiated by Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember (ITS) Surabaya and Ritsumeikan University, Japan. This program offers a space for young engineers and researchers to connect and network, as well as to provide a platform for them to sharpen their research skills.

The program is offered to fifteen (15) students of ITS Surabaya and ten (10) students of Ritsumeikan University (RU). The participants vary from final year undergraduate students and graduate students from both universities.

Participants are expected to be committed to fully follow the program and participate actively.
