Important Notes

- ① NFS is only a procedure for selecting scholarship students, and those who are selected as an NFS scholar must separately apply for admission of graduate programs (in November), Spring 2023. The admission guide will be delivered to successfully selected students only.
- ② All documents must be written either in Korean or English.
- ③ Where the original documents are not in Korean or English, they should be translated into Korean or English by the issuing institution or notary agency.
- ④ The evaluation and screening details will not be disclosed, nor the submitted documents will be returned.
- ⑤ Applicants are required to put accurate and valid contact information in their application forms because GNU may reach you during the screening period. If an applicant fails to be reached by GNU, they should be responsible for any disadvantages caused by changes of contact number, contact interruption, not checking admission results, or failure to follow immigration procedures.
- ⑥ This guide is written both in Korean and English. If there is any difference in interpretation, the Korean version shall be only considered.
- ⑦ Even if you are selected as an NFS scholar, your acceptance will be canceled if you submitted false documents or were selected by any improper means.
- ⑧ The scholarship may be canceled if a successfully selected applicant fails to receive an adequate student visa before their study begins.
- ⑨ NFS scholars are advised to stay in a GNU dormitory for their first semester.
- ⑩ All NFS scholars must subscribe to the National Health Insurance during their school years. If you do not have the national health insurance, your visa extension and change will be rejected and you are banned from school scholarships and any benefit programs offered by GNU.
- ⑪ New students are not allowed to take a leave of absence in their first semester. However, a leave of absence caused by disease, military service or pandemic may be allowed.
- ⑫ Matters other than those specified in this Application Guide are subject to GNU regulations.
