

How to find Prospective Supervisor (Professor)
Graduate School of Science and Technology (GSST)
Kumamoto University-Japan

First step :decide your research interest

It is valid for your master / doctoral course / postgraduate short-term research exchange program

(it is suggested to have discussion with your supervisor at home university beforehand)

Second step : search Professor at Kumamoto University who had a same / similar research topic.

Please check our Prospective Supervisors followings :

Try copy paste at web broser or direct link (click):

http://www.gsst.kumamoto-u.ac.jp/en/res_act/

Try copy paste at web broser:

<http://researchmap.jp/search/?affiliation=Kumamoto%20University&op=search&lang=english>

Third step : Prepare your research summary and personal documents (In english)

- Recent CV (put your photos as well)
- Summary of your recent research and future research (max. 2 sheets of A4 size is enough)
- The latest official academic transcript
- ITP TOEFL Score (Min. 530) or IELTS 6.0

Fourth Step : Contact Professor via e-mail

Applicants may find the e-mail address of Professor's via the above URL by clicking the designated names.

Do not forget to put title of subject on your e-mail and introduce yourself kindly and briefly.

Wish you a best of luck!