

Theo Oliver

France
Exchange Student
Epita

I'm an avid traveler, and Asia holds a special place in my heart with its breathtaking destinations. Little did I know, Surabaya would be an unexpected adventure. The moment we landed in Indonesia, we were greeted by chaotic traffic that caught us off guard. However, amidst the hustle and bustle, the campus provided a serene haven adorned with remarkable infrastructure and lush greenery—a perfect escape from the city's frenetic pace.

Juggling studies and exploration proved challenging initially. It pained me to be in such a captivating country without venturing beyond its borders. But I soon realized the importance of planning weekends and holidays, even if they were short trips near Surabaya. These little getaways added a touch of excitement to my experience.

The organized trips were absolutely fantastic! Exploring Mount Bromo was an incredible adventure, but the highlight for me was the cultural camp. Sharing moments of life with the locals was an unforgettable experience. I cherished every moment and deeply appreciated all the amazing experiences you orchestrated for us.